

Canterbury Stories

Starting Point Beaney House of Art and Knowledge
(Unless otherwise requested. Any alterations will be confirmed by CT Tours by email)

Duration 1 ½ hours (90 minutes)

Calling kids of all ages! A tour full of gory details, spies and play acting to captivate every imagination. No lectures on dates and facts here, all points of interest are explained through storytelling and object handling.

Fun for all the family, be prepared to answer questions, act the part of an Archbishop, knight or a medieval pilgrim to name just a few!

[Notes from your guide]

There's more than one way to deliver a tour, but for children there is a special ingredient needed. Fun! That is why this tour includes re-enactment, object handling and all information is told through stories.

Starting off with a discussion on mythical animals and a guest reference for Harry Potter, the tour may include the medieval ducking stool, prison escape tales, spies, gory murder and maybe a little historical context!

Participation is advised, but for those kids who aren't fond of play acting, I'll tailor the tour to specific interests and use different techniques to engage everyone on the tour.

Children 12 and under are free, so you only have to pay for guests aged 13 and over!

Toilets There are public toilets at the Beaney House of Art and Knowledge.
Other public toilets around the city can be pointed out if required.

Weather Tours run in all weathers.
Please wear comfortable shoes and bring sunscreen / umbrellas.

Health and Safety

Canterbury is an ancient city with many cobbled streets in the city centre. Please be aware of uneven pavements and slippery surfaces, especially after heavy rain. The high street is pedestrianised, but vehicles and bike users still use this and other roads for access / deliveries.
